

Women in Movies: WMST 150

Summer 2011 CRN 50735
Fall 2011 CRN 82868

This course looks at the images of women in a wide range of movies, including Disney films, action films, documentaries, comedies, dramas, romances, science fiction, horror and teen films. Although the course focuses on women, a broader goal is to understand how gender affects films, so there will be some discussion of men in film as well. The course focuses on Hollywood films; it seeks to understand them by comparing within & among genres, as well as across cultures & time periods.
