

THE BLACK WOMAN IN AMERICA

WMST 293P WMST

Instructor: Marjorie M. Fuller

Director of the Center for Black Culture and Research

Fall Semester

Tuesday /Thursday

6:00 – 7:15

Stansbury Hall - Room 47

The Black Woman is a course designed to enlighten students about the history, experience, heritage, and legacy of women of color in the United States. We will primarily focus on an analysis of the experience of African American women from the Diaspora to the present day. From Mammy to Michelle, we will examine the impact of Black women on our nation, and the world.
